Churchyard Maintenance

Saturday 18th May

9.30-11.30am

So many people comment on how lovely the churchyard looks, but to keep it looking nice takes a small army of volunteers.

If you can spare an hour or so to help out at the second of the churchyard maintenance sessions of the year we would love to see you.

There are lots of jobs to be done and whatever time you can spare will be gratefully received. Please bring your own tools.

Refreshments will be provided.
Thank you in advance

From the Rector

“Sticks and stones can break my bones, but words can never hurt me.”

This phrase first appeared in ‘The Christian Recorder’, a publication of the African Methodist Episcopal Church on March 22nd 1862.

I wonder how many of you reading this letter remember those words.
They were words that I chanted many times when I was a child.
Words that my parents passed on to me and reminded me of if ever anyone was saying nasty or untrue words to me or about me. It was a phrase that was meant to make me feel better about myself if I was being hurt or provoked in any way.
A phrase that could be chanted to other children as a way of self-defence. I rarely, if ever, hear the phrase said or referred to nowadays.

At the time, some sixty odd years ago, just saying the words seemed to help and bring comfort. I don't believe that the world of my childhood was as hard, difficult or caustic as the world is today. I suspect that I haven't heard the words said for so long because WORDS CAN AND DO HURT
on many levels. They hurt on a deeper inner level that perhaps wasn't considered in years gone by.

It saddens me when I hear people gossiping untruths about others.
When things get passed on from one person to another and with each passing on another embellishment added. It saddens me that people become excluded from groups because of gossip, unkind, untrue words. People get hurt, and I'm not just talking about our children. We moan about our young people

falling out with each other, about
the hurtful words
they say to and about others and yet so often they model their words and actions on adults. If only each one of us took more time to consider the consequences and the effect that, what we say, has on others then perhaps, just perhaps, the world in which we live may be a better place.

I'm not advocating that we let people walk all over us, or that we are never upset or cross because of what we hear, but perhaps if we can step back, take time to think and approach whatever or whoever has upset us in a kinder way, showing respect, then we have done the greater thing.
People are often disarmed when their angry words or gossip is met with a calm response. We need to nurture the good we see in others and reject the bad.

There is too much anger, selfishness, and bitterness in the world today. If we all stepped back and looked to find the best and not the worst in a situation, thought carefully before we spoke then we would each be playing our part in making the world a kinder, friendly place.

In Jesus' words 'Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives.'

Every Blessing Rev Sarah

BRANDS HATCH

WORKING WITH
THE COMMUNITY

BTCC RETURNS THIS MAY

Brands Hatch will host its first Kwik Fit British Touring Car Championship (BTCC) of the season on 11/12 May, the traditional spring-time round on the Indy circuit.

The event will feature three races as leading current generation drivers including Ash Sutton, Tom Ingram and Jake Hill try to get an early march on their rivals. They will battle it out on a competitive grid of Fords, BMWs, Hyundais and more saloon machinery.

The full weekend programme includes Free Practice plus the new-for-2024 Quick Six Qualifying format. Competitors progress through a series of knockout sessions in an attempt to claim pole position on Saturday. Sunday will feature the three headline races with a full support programme too.

Discounted advance tickets are available for £22. Under-13s enter for FREE.

ROSSI BACK AT BRANDS HATCH'S SIGNATURE INTERNATIONAL EVENT

Leading talents from the world stage will descend on Brands Hatch when Fanatec GT World Challenge Europe powered by AWS returns for its only UK round on 4/5 May. The championship returns a decade after the series' first visit to Kent for the opening round of the Fanatec GT Sprint Cup on the full Grand Prix circuit.

Megastar drivers, including global motorcycle icon Valentino Rossi, will line-up on a grid which has often featured former Grand Prix and Le Mans drivers. The cars are the real stars too, with entries from Mercedes-AMG, Lamborghini, BMW and more set to feature on a mouth-watering grid!

Two hour-long races will top the bill with driver changes and pit stops adding to the intrigue. There will be a full support race line-up too, plus an extensive off-track programme headlined by the Supercar Collective car show.

Discounted advance tickets are available for £22. Under-13s get in for FREE.

MAJOR RESURFACING WORK TO TAKE PLACE DURING MAY

The Brands Hatch circuit will be undergoing further improvements during the early spring as important resurfacing work will take place on the Grand Prix and Indy layouts.

The entry to Sheene Curve on the Grand Prix circuit all the way up to Clearways will be resurfaced on 13-15 May, directly following the Kwik Fit British Touring Car Championship meeting on 11/12 May.

Circuit Manager, Mike Lally, said: "We are constantly looking to improve the circuit and keep it in the best condition possible for our on-track events. This next step in resurfacing the track, which is being undertaken by Thomas Bow City Asphalt, will help us continue to provide excellent opportunities for drivers and riders alike."

News from St. Edmund's Church of England Primary School

The school was a haze of red when the children recently enjoyed dressing up and raised money for Comic Relief. Well done to all!!

The children also took part in various activities, based on time, for our Science Day. The children learnt about how the human brain works, how to make pendulums and water clocks, how moths and butterflies 'hide', how animals grow through their life cycles and how to set dinosaurs free who have been frozen in time. What a day!!!

Some of our children made their way to Maidstone Leisure Centre to take part in a swim relay. This was a fantastic opportunity to raise money for the Demelza charity and for the school. They used their Christian values of courage and trust as they swam for twenty minutes in a relay, taking it in turns to swim a length each. They all worked incredibly hard and were cheered on by the parents from all three of our schools as they shined their lights.

You could have heard a pin drop in our school recently as the children sat their end of term assessments. To complement their hard work, each class participated in a project with a focus on Design and Technology. We had classes researching and preparing wraps and spaghetti bolognese, researching and designing steady hand games, sling shot cars and moving vehicles, hand sewing pillows and designing boats. What an amazing way to end a fantastic week!

What makes you so excited that it makes you cheer and clap? A sports team winning a match, being awarded a shining light certificate, seeing someone else achieve something that you know they have been struggling with – are all answers from our children this week. We have been learning about the Easter story and how people were so excited when Jesus entered Jerusalem riding a donkey and shouting Hosanna! Little did they know that the days that followed were to be dark and filled with sadness and how important it is to come together to shine our lights to help each other.

Don't forget to Shine your Light and share our school values of Love, Courage, Respect and Trust.

Sending you all our best wishes.

Mrs. Liegh Massey
School Secretary
