Thank you all for your very generous donations for the fair. The only things that we are now short of are Mince Pies for the Mulled Wine and Mince Pie stall. If you are able to provide any they would be most gratefully received. Please either bring them to the rectory or to the hall on the day. And of course, cakes for the cake stall.

Help on the day

Thank you so much for your offer of help. If you are helping to set up please could you arrive at the hall for 10.15am. If you are running/ setting up a stall please do not arrive before 10.30am.

Help to clear up afterwards would be most gratefully received.

Don't forget, if you have a

Christmasie jumper or top please do wear it.

CHRISTMAS TREE FESTIVAL

The Christmas Tree Festival is only two weeks away. Trees must be artificial, no taller than 4 feet, with battery operated lights and decorated to represent yourself, your family, friends, business etc. Trees will be set up in church on the afternoon of Friday 6th December.

Refreshments for Christmas Tree Festival

Please could you help to serve refreshments during the Christmas Tree Festival

Saturday 7th, Sunday 8th Monday 9th December.

Please sign a time slot on the sheets at the back of church. If you could provide cake, mince pies or biscuits for refreshments please list on the separate sheet.

Thank you so much (GM)

CHRISTMAS KNITTING

This year we will be knitting angels to be given out at the Christmas Services. If you would like to help, please collect a pattern from the back of the church and start knitting! Please bring any completed angels to church before the middle of December. Thank you (GM)
